Joaquin was 39 years old, one of the handsomest men in Costa Rica, a quick shooter and courageous as All Europe Demanding Coal; We Are a lion. He was tall and of athletic build, fond of horses, and a member of one of the most distinguished families. He rarely went unarmed and had fought a number of duels. The widow of one of his adversaries, a lawyer he killed in a revolver fight, a few years ago sought to avenge her husband and fired five shots at close range at Timoco but the latter survived his wounds.

brother Federico, who was minister the cost situation, headed by Senator of war in the cabinet of President Frelinghuysen of New Jersey. Alfredo Gonzales, deposed the latter and became head of the government. Joaquin was given the war portfolio and therupon, it is said became the real president of Costa Rica. For two years previously Joaquin had been fighting revolutionists and personal enemies and when he became minister of war he became still more mergetic and aggressive. It has een said that Joaquin on the day of his death had more enemies than popular motion picture actress in he United States had admirers
